CSI:

CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION

Everything begins with the usual daily briefing at the police station. The chief of police will hand a different crime file to each team and ask them to start investigating.

They will have 2 hours to go as far as possible in their investigations and come back to the headquarters to make their report. To do this, participants will need to explore real scale reconstitutions, pursue leads, interrogate witnesses and perform researches and analysis. Following their first report, the chief of police calls for a meeting: a 30 min brainstorming session to find out the connections between the different cases as well as the best way to close them within the last hour of the game.

The final action of the game will depend on the decisions that have been made during the meeting and everyone's capacity to work together...
